

Chikkamagaluru, a small city located in the foothills of the Mullayanagiri range in Karnataka is considered the birthplace of coffee in India. 16th-century Sufi Saint, Baba Budan introduced coffee by planting seven raw beans which he brought back from a pilgrimage, in the courtyard of his hermitage in Chikkamagaluru. The coffee plants gradually spread as backyard plantings, and later on to what is now known as Baba Budan Hills.

At the heart of Chikkamagaluru, stands a hotel that offers unparalleled luxury and hospitality. Indulge in a delectable meal at any of our restaurants. Enjoy a breath of fresh air in the hills. Aadrika offers you the perfect holiday you need, any time of the year.

Hotel Aadrika features a garden, bar, shared lounge and terrace, restaurants and room service, a 24-hour front desk and free Wi-Fi. The accommodation offers a concierge service and a tour desk.

The units come with air conditioning, a flat-screen TV with cable channels, a kettle, safe lockers, a shower, free toiletries and a desk. At the hotel, all rooms are equipped with a wardrobe and a private bathroom. We offer a continental or buffet breakfast.

The area is popular for cycling, and bike as well as car hires, are easily available at the accommodation.
